A Note from D'vorah About This Journal

This journal is designed as a companion to the Sourcerer CEO Secret Podcast series, by James Wedmore. Being that I don't have the rights to those materials, I'm not permitted to share them

Instead, I'll provide you with a framework that you can use to help you capture the gems being shared.

I'll sprinkle episode related journal prompts throughout and will also provide plenty of room for you to take notes, capture key concepts, and brainstorm ideas. To make it easy for you, I'll create a section for each episode.

I would love to hear about some of the key takeaways you've gleaned from this series. I'll compile a collection of these keys, shared by members of our community, and will then share them with you.

If we each share a gem or two, we'll all walk away with more and retain more of what is being taught.

Personally, I've found that listening to each episode more than once, makes more of the content accessible.

Head over to the secret podcast page, to listen in as you journal along. You'll find a link to add the podcast episodes to your podcast player.

To locate the podcast page, check for an email from James. Look for "Your Secret Podcast Awaits " in the subject line.

If you cannot find that email or you need to register for the free series, go to:

I'd love to hear about your realizations and key takeaways.

May this resource serve you well!
